

2020 Greater London Area Arts Society Volunteering Opportunities

Benjamin Franklin House 36 Craven Street WC2N 5NF

Front of House Volunteers required at this Grade 1 historic house – from running the Box Office to leading tours of the house for visitors. One day per week. Roles especially suited to those with strong interest in the public side of museums/heritage work.

Conway Hall, 25 Red Lion Square, London WC1 4 RL

Conway Hall's library houses the Ethical Society's collection of Humanist research material. The work involves noting the condition of books, their cleaning and conservation. Book Conservation Training is needed. There is a vacancy for an experienced book conservationist.

Design Museum, Commonwealth Institute, Kensington High Street, Kensington

The Design Museum has moved to new premises at the old Commonwealth Institute on High Street Kensington. They are looking for volunteers for four different roles and training will be given for each one

Welcomer

A volunteer is needed to deliver excellent customer service, provide information and handouts, orientate people, and supervise an activity table. Be familiar with forthcoming events/exhibitions and provide information on local facilities (tube, ATM machines, Boris bicycles etc).

Library Volunteer

Help set up the new library and its procedures; assist the public, students and museum curators with their enquiries and research (this is not a lending library, ie the books cannot be taken away but must be read in situ). An interest in contemporary design is desirable.

Dickens Museum, 48 Doughty Street, London WC1N 2IX

The main need is for room stewards/guides to look after visitors to Dickens London home. General stewarding plus some conservation roles will be needed in the future.

Emery Walker House, 7 Hammersmith Terrace, Chiswick A fascinating terraced house overlooking the Thames, which was the home of Emery Walker - printer, collector and mentor to William Morris. It will re-open on Thursdays and Saturdays from 20th April 2017 for special guided tours in groups of maximum 8 visitors. The tours will last one hour and are pre-booked. After an introductory talk you will accompany the visitors through all the main rooms in the house and (weather permitting), the garden, bringing to life the history of this unique house beside the Thames. Volunteers are urgently needed to act as tour guides and training will start soon.

Dorich House Museum, Kingston University, 67 Kingston Vale SW15 3RN

Volunteers needed for front of house / visitor assistance and stewarding roles. Hours and days are flexible. Volunteers will be joining others on a team. All Volunteers help with Gallery

Assistant duties and have the opportunity to be involved in a range of activities, including Front of House greeting visitors and manning the Museum shop, helping with public and private events, running Learning Activities, and tour guiding. Museum Volunteers play a vital role in keeping the collection and the Museum safe as well as sharing knowledge of the Museum and collection with visitors and improving the visitor experience. There will also be an opportunity to get involved in other 'behind the scenes' Museum activities including: assisting the Curator with research and archiving, assisting with museum marketing by using social media, updating the website and occasional leaflet distribution, helping with collections care and object cleaning.
